

Joe Chamberlin, a Grand Rapids native, has served as CEO of the West Michigan Whitecaps since 2019. Prior to assuming the role of CEO, Joe served as the organizations Vice President of Finance and Administration. In his time with the Whitecaps Joe has helped strengthen the foundation that will ensure the team remains one West Michigan's most valued community assets and one of MiLB's premier franchises, while also expanding the organizations reach with the acquisition of the Traverse City Pit Spitters in 2018.

Prior to joining the Whitecaps in 2013 Joe served in a wide range of Human Resources leadership roles with Ally Financial, a large financial services company headquartered in Detroit, Michigan. While with Ally Joe spent time based in Atlanta, Chicago, and Detroit. Joe earned his bachelor's degree in Business Economics from The College of Wooster, a small liberal arts school in Ohio, and holds a master's degree in Human Resources and Labor Relations from Michigan State University. Active in the community Joe was a participant in the 2019 class of Leadership Grand Rapids and currently serves as a board member with the Whitecaps Community Foundation and The Saint Mary's Foundation. Joe and his wife Dana are the proud parents of two wonderful boys, Crawford and Becker.
