

Patrick M. O'Keefe is the Founder and CEO of O'Keefe. He is recognized as an expert in the fields of turnaround consulting, corporate reorganization, debt restructuring, strategic advisory services, due diligence support, valuation, and litigation support. For over 35 years, Mr. O'Keefe has been active as a financial consultant and turnaround advisor to under-performing businesses in various industries. Through his work, he has saved thousands of jobs and retained millions of dollars of owner equity in businesses that otherwise would have failed. As a result, Mr. O'Keefe was inducted into M&A Advisor's Hall of Fame which recognized him for numerous deal excellence awards in turnarounds and reorganizations.

Mr. O'Keefe has been a TMA member for most of his career in the turnaround industry. He was a Detroit Chapter board member from 2001-2006, served as Chapter President in 2004-2006, and several years of service on the International Board. Mr. O'Keefe was part of the originating TMAssist team helping business owners recover from Hurricane Katrina and a member of the CTP Task Force guiding the merger with TMA. In 2009 he was honored at the national conference with the Outstanding Individual Contribution Award by Turnaround Management Association.

Tomorrow, he will be honored with the Lifetime Achievement award by the Detroit Chapter of TMA for his extraordinary past and ongoing efforts in turnaround and restructuring. Mr. O'Keefe's team is very active in TMA serving as Chapter Administrator, Program Committee member, Sponsor, and in West Michigan, a board member.
