

Name: Alexander Calderone

Alexander A. Calderone is the Managing Director and founding partner of Calderone Advisory Group (CAG), a boutique turnaround, restructuring and litigation support consultancy servicing the national middle market. Prior to founding CAG in May of 2014, Alex served as the leader of the Casino Finance practice for The Fine Point Group, a Las Vegas-based consulting and management firm servicing the global gaming industry. Prior to that, he spent seven years with the national turnaround and restructuring firm of Conway MacKenzie. Before joining Conway MacKenzie, Mr. Calderone started his career as a Certified Public Accountant with the Assurance and Advisory Services practice of KPMG, LLP, one of the largest providers of audit, tax and consulting services to the global business community.

Alex specializes in working with both healthy and underperforming companies across multiple industries, with a special focus on clients operating in the casino and hospitality business, healthcare, construction & engineering, distribution, manufacturing, consumer products, and transportation and logistics industries. He has served clients in the context of out-of-court restructurings, loan workout situations, Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 bankruptcies, and various types of transactions including acquisitions, divestitures, and liquidations.

Mr. Calderone also has significant experience related to business valuation, forensic accounting (including Ponzi scheme disentanglement), and quantification of economic damages and is available to provide expert witness testimony regarding each of these disciplines in the context of both commercial and bankruptcy-litigation proceedings.

Mr. Calderone is a Certified Public Accountant, Certified Turnaround Professional, Certified Fraud Examiner, Chartered Global Management Accountant, and Accredited in Business Valuation by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. In addition, he is a former Visiting Professor of Accounting at Michigan State University and holds both a Master of Science and Bachelor of Arts in Accounting, with High Honor, from Michigan State University.

Mr. Calderone is a member of the Turnaround Management Association, Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants' Fraud and Construction Industry task forces, and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Business Valuation/Forensic and Litigation Services group.

Alex is also a frequent speaker and author on topics of corporate revitalization and business insolvency and has been quoted or published in a number of media outlets, including Reuters, The Wall Street Journal, The Las Vegas Review Journal, TheStreet.com, The Journal of Corporate Renewal, ABL Advisor, Global Gaming Business Magazine, and the Detroit News & Free Press.
